

Discover Guadeloupe's rum culture

Visit a traditional distillery, learn about the island's rum-making heritage and taste the famous Rhum Agricole.

Begin the excursion with a traditional Guadeloupean cocktail and an introduction to the island's rum culture. We then continue to the family-owned Reimonenq Distillery, surrounded by sugar cane fields outside Sainte-Rose.

During a guided tour for Fort Royal guests, you will discover the historic pressing equipment and steam-powered distillers used in the production process. Afterwards, explore the museum and taste different varieties of rum. There will also be time to purchase rum at factory prices before returning to the hotel.
