

Snorkelling in Réserve Cousteau

Discover one of Guadeloupe's most famous marine reserves, with crystal-clear water, colourful fish and beautiful snorkelling around the Pigeon Islands.

The excursion includes three snorkelling stops, beginning in the waters around the Pigeon Islands at the heart of Réserve Cousteau. The exceptionally clear water is home to a wide variety of tropical fish and turtles, creating the feeling of swimming in a natural aquarium.

Beneath the surface, you may also spot the statue of Jacques Cousteau, the famous French ocean explorer after whom the reserve is named.
